The Honorable David D. Newsom
Dean, Institute for the Study of Diplomacy
School of Foreign Service
Georgetown University
Washington, D.C. 20057

Dear Dean Newsom:

Thank you for your letter of 9 April commending Hal Bean for the fine job he's done designing and teaching a unique course on "Institutions and Management in Foreign Affairs" at the School of Foreign Service. Mr. Bean has lived up to the expectations we had when we proposed him to the School of Foreign Service as our first Central Intelligence Agency Officer-in-Residence. He would be the first to say that the warm reception accorded him at the School and the open and willing cooperation extended to him by you and your colleagues contributed materially to his success.

We are pleased to have Mr. Bean extend his stay at the School through the coming academic year, 1986-1987, and at his request are willing to fund the administrative/overhead costs attendant upon his being in residence.

I am confident that this second year will prove at least as successful as the first. If so, the School of Foreign Service and Mr. Bean will have gone a long way toward establishing the success of our Officer-in-Residence Program.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely,

/s/ William F. Donnelly
